

30. Paul & Kathleen Beckett Mini-Scholarship Awards

These awards, established with a contribution of $5,200 by Dr. Paul Beckett, are aimed at helping needy, but worthy, children living and schooling in Asia, Africa, Latin America, the Caribbean or the South Pacific with schooling. expenses. The name of the recipient, age, country, year and amount of each award, is listed below.

1. Ingrith Sheila Julissa Och Tecum (2023) – Ingrith, one of eight siblings, is 13 yrs. old and a 6th grade student at the Escuela Oficial Rural Mixta Canton Chilima, Chichicastenango, Guatemala. She wants to become a scientist, doctor, or soldier and said she would use her award: 500 Quetzales help meet school expenses

2. Nelson Danilo Cuterez (2023) – Nelson, one of 8 siblings, is 13 yrs. old and at the time of the award, was a sixth grade student at the Escuela Oficial Rural Mixta Canton Chilima in Chichicastenango Guatemala. His stated ambition is to become a policeman. When asked what he would do with his award of 500 Quetzales, he said he would buy shoes and clothing for school.

3. Genesis Fernanda (2023) - Genesis, one of two siblings, is 14 years old and at the time of the award, was a fifth grade student at the Escuela de Ninas de la Buga in Livingston, Izabal Guatemala. Her ambition is become a cook. When asked how she would spend her 500 Quetzal award, she replied she didn't know yet.

4. Edwin Gabriel Sacul (2023) – Edwin, one of three siblings, is 11 years old and, at the time of the award, was in the 5th grade at the Justo Rufino Barrios school for boys in Livingston, Izabal, Guatemala. He wants to become a policeman and stated he would give his 500 Quetzal award to his mother to buy food.

