

The Abibitumi Kasa
Information
Packet
2009 Revision

Table of Contents

1	Current Situation	3
2	Solution	3
2.1	Objectives	3
2.2	Approach	4
2.3	Benefits	4
3	Implementation Plan	4
3.1	Methodology.....	5
3.2	Schedule	5
3.3	Resources	5
3.4	Qualifications.....	5
4	Costs	5
5	Conclusion: What we need from Prospective Instructors	5
	Appendix A: Examples of Appendices	7
	Appendix B: Terms and Conditions	11

The mission of Abibitumi Kasa Afrikan Language Institute (AKALI) is to provide instruction and resources in the interest of sovereignty and nationbuilding for Afrikan people. The knowledge and principles necessary for this goal are embedded in the languages of Afrikan people. Therefore, a central focus of Abibitumi Kasa is language instruction which highlights information including, but not limited to, Afrikan worldview, culture and spirituality.

We have and continue to offer Afrikan languages to reconnect people of Afrikan descent to our stolen legacy for the very practical purpose of using this information to create and recreate reality in the best interest of Afrikan people.

1 Current Situation

Currently, abibitumikasa.com functions as a virtual learning center for those who wish to reclaim Afrikan languages, customs, and lifestyles. With over 1500 members and that number steadily growing daily, this forum is a prime training ground to develop well rounded liberated leaders.

Online classes in Twi, Yoruba, and Wolof, are currently available on the website as well as various classes and lectures related to Afrikan nationbuilding. Using numerous forums and innovative flash videoconferencing software, students and instructors are able to interact in a variety of mediums: face to face in a virtual classroom using webcams and microphones, or mind to mind in the multifaceted forums.

2 Solution

You. We at Abibitumi Kasa are looking to expand our course offerings by providing our infrastructure to other Afrikans with expertise and ideological clarity. This is an opportunity for Afrikans around the world to gather in a central place to learn and discuss paths toward liberation. Using the extensive network already present through Abibitumi Kasa, classes hosted using the current videoconferencing software. Topics ranging from Afrikan history, language and culture to family development, nationbuilding, Afrikan spirituality and more are welcome. A course consistent with these objectives would act as a vehicle for the promotion of your work as well as a source of information for those who are on the distinguished road toward liberation.

2.1 Objectives

- To provide guidance for those on the quest toward liberation.
- To connect like-minded individuals for the purpose of networking and nationbuilding.
- To provide opportunities for individual Afrikans, authors and organizations to promote services that benefit Afrikan people.

2.2 Approach

Using the extensive network of Abibitumi Kasa as well as outside solicitation, a course may cover various topics relating to nationbuilding in but not limited to the following areas:

- Afrikan History
- Traditional Afrikan Spirituality
- white world domination by terror
- Afrikan Educational Systems
- Relationship Development
- Family Dynamics
- Economic Development
- Holistic Health
- Traditional Afrikan Music and Poetry
- Artistic Explorations
- Elder Council
- Afrikan Languages

2.3 Benefits

- Participants need only a computer with Flash installed to participate, but are encouraged to have a microphone and/or video cam.
- Participants are able to tune in from anywhere in the world.
- Instructors are able to introduce their research and work to a wide audience of people who are personally interested in their subject areas.
- Any opportunity to further the liberation of Afrikan people is a benefit in itself.

Any opportunity to further the liberation of Afrikan people is a benefit in itself.

3 Implementation Plan

Planning a course relating to Afrikan Liberation requires much cooperation and networking within the liberation movement community. One of the best things about our community is that our leaders and foremost scholars are quite accessible, confirming that we truly are a close knit family. With not many degrees of separation between us, it is important that we make our connections and skills known in order to use the full capacity of our collective strength.

3.1 Methodology

The existing video conferencing software as it exists is already set up in a metaphor for a conference space. There are different “rooms” that participants can go to conduct classes and a specific one can be created to host your class. Depending on each participant’s software capabilities, they can be part of conversations using the text chat area, a microphone, and or/ a webcam.

In addition to separate rooms for various breakout sessions, a room can also be available as an information and technical support area for those having problems using their peripheral devices.

Abibitumi Kasa staff provides the following for our instructors:

Class Planning – To solicit instructors and act as a liaison between the teachers and the greater Abibitumi Kasa community networks organization.

Technical Support – We are proficient with computers and our software and will troubleshoot technical support issues for prospective instructors and students.

Public Relations – We will design and implement marketing tactics including flyers and branding, and advertising for the class.

4 Costs

The cost can range from free to however much is needed to support the instructors and/or Abibitumi Kasa. There are pros and cons for each option, but that is the discretion of the instructor primarily, Abibitumi Kasa and those affiliated. The typical split is 75% - 25% with 75% going to the instructor and 25% going to Abibitumi Kasa to support our expansion of the work of Total Afrikan Liberation.

5 Conclusion: What we need from Prospective Instructors

As we move forward in technology, it is important to make the most of it to further the cause of Afrikan liberation. This course would reach an audience in a way that has not yet been accomplished; it is an online real-time class for Afrikans around the world to come together and learn.

What we need from you to make the class happen are the following:

Abibitumi Kasa: Information Packet

1. Class description: A general overview of what the class will deal with. This should be short and concise, yet thorough so students can come to know what the class is all about
2. Class syllabus: A week by week breakdown of course lessons
3. Duration of course: How many weeks for the course
4. Time and day of the week of the course. Also included should be the start date of the course and the date and time of the free promotional lecture.
5. Duration of each class. In minutes. Typically this will be 90 minutes per class to 120 minutes (2 hours)
6. Cost of class. For 6 week sessions, this is typically between $95 and $125 for 90 minute classes. For 8 week sessions of 120 minutes each class, this is typically $195.
7. Picture of the instructor for public use; mainly used as advertising for courses.

Appendix A: Video Conferencing Software & History of Abibitumi Kasa

[Figure 1. Video Conferencing Software. This Flash based chatroom is a great way to connect Afrikans across the world face to face!]

Flash Chat

FlashChat includes a set of advanced administrative options so that you can easily manage rooms, users, bans, messages, and much more.

A PHP-based "bad words filter" allows you, the chat administrator, to prevent foul language from being viewed within the chat.

FlashChat's advanced admin panel allows you to view messages within any room from any time period (provided that they have not been purged from the database). Advanced search options ensure that you, the FlashChat administrator, will have quick access to any message that you might be looking for.

Users and administrator can ignore other users, share files, engage in private chats, and view user profiles (if available). Administrator can ban and unban users, and have at their disposal a variety of text-only commands like /broadcast and /alert.

The FlashChat smilie set is one of the largest of any chat system. FlashChat takes it a step further, however, by allowing the chat administrator to change the code for any smile, disable any smile, and re-order the smiles easily by just re-ordering the corresponding PHP lines in the config.php file.

Any sound option can be muted and tested. Options also exist for right/left speaker balance ("pan") and for overall volume. As you would expect, all of these options are fully externally configurable by the chat administrator as well.

Music and imaging software allows the instructor to incorporate music, video, and/or photos into the classroom, acting as an online media system that students can access simultaneously in real time.

Class text and audio can be saved and posted. Each student in the classroom has the option to save the text typed during class. Using our state of the art sound recording software the instructor can also record each class to then post online or archive on the instructor's personal computer.

History of Abibitumi Kasa

Abibitumi Kasa translates to Black/Afrikan Power Language. It is an expression that was coined by Obadele Kambon to convey a marriage between:

* A recognition of the need to reclaim and build upon our interrelated indigenous systems of knowledge/spirituality/politics/healing/kwk, which are embedded in our Afrikan languages.

* A recognition of the ongoing WAR against Afrikan people and the need for an intentional and unapologetic commitment in every aspect of life for the Total Liberation of Afrikan People throughout Space and Time.

Because each of these necessities is manifested in every aspect of his Ena's (mother's) and Agya's (father's) lives, Obadele has understood his Nkrabea (mission/destiny) on this planet as a continuation and further unification of these two interrelated goals as integral sides of the same coin in the interest of Afrikan people, Afrikan Sovereignty and Afrikan Liberation.

This is a site by Abibifo (Afrikan people) for Abibifo (Afrikan people) throughout Abibiwiase nyinaa (The Entire Afrikan/Black World).

The Adinkra chosen to represent Abibitumi Kasa Afrikan Language Institute was "Nea onnim sua a, ohu - When one who doesn't know learns, she/he knows (sees)"

Abibitumi Kasa Afrikan Language Institute (AKALI) in its present form was conceived of in a casual conversation between Obadele Kambon and Dr. Kwasi Konadu at the 2006 Sankofa Conference in Banneker City (Washington, DC). Dr. Konadu worked as the Executive Director of the Africana Studies Institute (ASI) and webmaster of the Institute's website. However, due to the monumental task of keeping the site's content updated along with other time-consuming duties, he felt that it would be best to take the Africana Studies Institute site down for the foreseeable future. At that point Abibitumi Kasa was only a blogspot and not a full-scale website. After nonchalantly mentioning that I had considered making Abibitumi Kasa a website, Kwasi told me that he could make some changes that would put Abibitumi Kasa in the place of the ASI site. Well, I didn't think anything else of it, but to my surprise Kwasi sent me an email just a few weeks later informing me that the domain name and hosting had been taken care of and that the new site, www.abibitumikasa.com, was ready to go! Additionally, Kwasi offered technical assistance in getting files uploaded, suggested programs for website development and offered the ASI site files as a template upon which AKALI could be built. Dr. Konadu's assistance and continued support have been invaluable and without his suban pa and adwuma pa, the current work, classes and resources that AKALI is providing to Afrikan people would not be possible.

The website was developed of as an extension of the Twi and Yoruba classes that were already being offered in Chicago at Betty Shabazz International Charter School that were sponsored by the school's parent council from February - December 2006. With this sponsorship, they paid 50% of the cost of classes for any and all Afrikans who signed up for the classes.

Upon Obadele Kambon returning from Brazil in May of 2006, the decision was made to incorporate live audio and video streaming into the classroom in the summer of 2006. This enabled AKALI the ability to have students throughout the US and world. AKALI has taught students as far away as Belize, Australia, Canada, UK, Korea, the Caribbean and more as well as various regions of the US.

Upon launching the Abibitumi Kasa Afrikan Liberation Institute forums Abibitumi Kasa has moved towards providing resources in Afrikan languages and resources for Afrikan liberation. This aspect of AKALI was founded with Abibitumi Kasa admins Oju and Kala as well as Aziza later. Obadele, Kala and Oju were all previously admins on another message board, but upon seeing that board go in directions that were incongruent with Afrikan liberation, Obadele and Kala left at the same time while Oju chose to stay. Also coming onboard as moderators were Simba Nerevu and ajaguna in Afrikan Military Systems and Afrikan Political Systems. Then we decided to offer Afrikan Liberation classes and brought Dr. Kamau Kambon and Mwalimu Baruti on to teach their books. Recent instructors have also included Keidi Obi Awadu of Living in Black (The Great AIDS Hoax), Dr. Runoko Rashidi (Around the World with Runoko Rashidi), Kentake Mut Merimut (Akokō Nan), Akhu Yaw Kamau (Afrikan Algebra), We are looking at having them continue these courses as they are BlackNificent! We now have many moderators and even more prospective instructors for classes we have lined up on repatriation to Kiswahili.

AKALI has also provided instruction for journeys to Afrika serving students in Ghana (for the AKALI/Sankofa Abusua coordinated Sankofa Journey) as well as Betty Shabazz International Charter School's (BSICS) journey to Senegal and the Gambia. We have also acted as translator, interpreter and co-host for the Sankofa Journey in July-August of 2008.

While based in Chicago, we expanded to consulting roles teaching at Chicago State University through the Afrikan amerikkkan studies department, Winnie Mandela Intergenerational High School teaching Kiswahili, Charles Hamilton Houston Alternative High School teaching Kiswahili, Malcolm X College teaching Twi and Yoruba and Northeastern Illinois University teaching Afrikan Communications and more. We are continuing this work with community classes in Ghana, our new base of operations.

An additional service that has been a spin off has been web and graphic design services. This came about as a result of people falling in love with the design of AKALI's website and graphics. Afrikans began to ask how much we charge so we established this as a business.

We continue to build, grow and expand teaching Afrikan languages, Afrikan worldview and all aspects of Afrikan liberation. This is the only Afrikan Liberation Institute and/or Afrikan Language Institute by and for Afrikan people exclusively and unapologetically. This is the world of Abibitumi Kasa.

Obadele Kwame Kambon

Appendix B: Terms and Conditions

You agree, through your use of this website and associated Liberation Forum, that this site is a resource exclusively for Afrikan (Black) people and the upliftment of Afrikan (Black) people specifically and that you will not post any material which is false, defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, vulgar, hateful, harassing, obscene, profane, sexually-oriented, threatening, invasive of a person's privacy, or otherwise in violation of ANY law. You also agree not to post any copyrighted material unless the copyright is owned by you or you have consent from the owner of the copyrighted material. Spam, flooding, advertisements, chain letters, pyramid schemes, and solicitations are also inappropriate to this site or forum.

Note that it is impossible for us to confirm the validity every single post on this site and forum. Please remember that we do not actively monitor the posted messages and are not responsible for their content. We do not warrant the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of any information presented. The messages express the views of the author, not necessarily the views of this site or forum. Anyone who feels that a posted message is objectionable is encouraged to notify an administrator of this forum immediately. We have the right to remove objectionable content, within a reasonable time frame, if we determine that removal is necessary. This is a manual process, however, so please realize that we may not be able to remove or edit particular messages immediately. This policy applies to member profile information as well.

You remain solely responsible for the content of your forum messages, and you agree to indemnify and hold harmless this forum, and any related websites to this forum. We at this site and forum also reserve the right to reveal your identity (or any information we have about you) in the event of a complaint or legal action arising from any information posted by you. You have the ability, as you register, to choose your username. We advise that you keep the name appropriate. With this user account you are about to register, you agree to never give your password to another member, for your protection and for validity reasons. You also agree to NEVER use another member's account to post messages or browse this forum. After you register and log into this site and forum, you can fill out a detailed profile. It is your responsibility to present clean and accurate information. Any information we deem inaccurate or vulgar will be removed.

Please note that with each post, your IP address is recorded, in the event that you need to be banned from this site or forum or your ISP contacted. This will only happen in the event of a major violation of this agreement.

A. What these Terms and Conditions Cover:

These Terms and Conditions govern the use and access to information and services provided through the Site. In these Terms and Conditions, the words "AKALI", "we", "us", and "our" mean Abibitumi Kasa Afrikan Language Institute and/or Abibitumi Kasa Afrikan Liberation Insitute (AKALI) and subsidiaries thereof.

B. Accepting these Terms and Conditions:

You understand that by accessing or using the Site, or the information or services offered or available through the Site, you have agreed to these Terms and Conditions.

C. Changes in Terms:

AKALI may modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications will apply to you and will be effective immediately upon the posting to the Site. You understand that by using or accessing the Site or the information therein after a change becomes effective, you have agreed to it. AKALI will not provide you with individual notice any change. You should select the "Terms and Conditions" link at the bottom of the main web page of the Site from time to time to review the current Terms and Conditions because they are binding on you.

D. Termination:

AKALI may terminate your access to the Site for any reason, at any time, with or without notice to you. If you terminate your agreement to these Terms and Conditions, you may no longer use or access the Site.

E. Limitations of Liability:

Risks of use. Access to the Site may be limited or unavailable during periods of peak demand, system upgrades, maintenance or for other reasons. If access to the Site is unavailable or delayed at any time, you agree to use alternative means to get information from AKALI, such as contacting AKALI through e-mail, phone or regular mail. AKALI will not be liable to you if you are unable to access information or use an online service through the Site.

Limitation of Damages. IN NO EVENT WILL AKALI BE LIABLE FOR CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL OR INDIRECT DAMAGES. THIS INCLUDES, BUT IS NOT LIMITED TO, DAMAGES THAT MAY RESULT FROM THE USE, INCONVENIENCE, DELAY OR LOSS OF USE OF THE SITE, THE INFORMATION THEREIN

OR FOR OMISSIONS OR INACCURACIES IN THE INFORMATION IN THE SITE.

No Liability for Events Outside of AKALI's Control. AKALI will not be liable for any problems that results from a cause over which AKALI does not have direct control. Such causes include, but are not limited to, (1) the failure of electronic or mechanical equipment or communication lines ; (2) telephone or other interconnect problems, (3) bugs, errors, configuration problems or the incompatibility of computer hardware or software; (4) the failure or unavailability of Internet access; (5) problems with Internet service providers or other equipment or services relating to your computer or network;(6) problems with intermediate computer or communications network or facilities; (7) problems with data transmission facilities or your telephone, cable or wireless service; or (8) unauthorized access, theft, operator errors, severe weather, earthquakes, or other natural disasters or labor disputes. AKALI is also not responsible for any damage to your computer, software, modem, telephone, wireless device or other property resulting in any way from your use of the Site.

F. Disclaimer of Warranties:

THERE IS NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, REGARDING THE SITE, THE INFORMATION THEREIN, AND ANY ONLINE SERVICE OFFERED THROUGH THE SITE.

G. Indemnification:

You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless AKALI, its officers, directors, employees, agents and licensors from and against all losses, expenses, damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, resulting from any violation of these Terms and Conditions by you.

H. Consent to E-Mail Communications and Opting Out:

You agree to receive electronic mail ("e-mail") regarding services from us and concerning online membership, such as our electronic mailing list. AKALI may send you e-mails about services and products we believe may be of interest to you. You may opt-out of future e-mails about products and services by following instructions contained in an e-mail that you receive from us. We reserve the right, however, to e-mail you important information relating to any account(s) that you may have with us, including legal communications.

I. Protecting your User Name and Password (if applicable):

AKALI has adopted policies and procedures intended to prevent unauthorized access to the Site and the information contained therein. You agree to comply at all times with any security or operating procedures which AKALI establishes. You will be responsible for the confidentiality and use of your user name, password and account number (if applicable). You agree not to hold AKALI liable for any damages of any kind resulting from your decision to disclose your user name, password or account number (if applicable) to any third party. You will be responsible for any access to the Site made through and under your user name, password and account number (if applicable). You agree to immediately notify us if you become aware of:

Any loss or theft of your user name, password and/or account number(s); or Any unauthorized use of your user name, password and/or account number(s), or of the Site, any information therein, or any online services offered through the Site.

We may suspend or cancel your access to the Site if we suspect the Site, your account information, or any online service offered through the Site is being used in an unauthorized or fraudulent manner.

J. No Other Use:

The Site gives you access to services and information from AKALI which may be presented with a distinctive "look and feel." These services, information and "look and feel" are proprietary property of AKALI. You may use the Site only for your personal, non-business use and may not reproduce, sell or distribute all or any portion of the information provided to you.

K. Severability:

If any clause or provision of these Terms and Conditions shall be deemed invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of these Terms and Conditions shall remain valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms. The invalidity or unenforceability of any term, clause or provision in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

L. Governing Law:

These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by the laws of the District of Columbia and, where applicable, by federal law. However, any issue relating to an account or service with AKALI which you can access through the Site shall be governed by the law(s) specified in the agreement for that account or service, if any, if there is a separate agreement for that account or service.

Abbitumi Kasa: Information Packet

M. Dispute Resolution:

You agree that you will notify AKALI in writing of any claim or dispute concerning the Site, or the information or services provided through it, and give AKALI a reasonable period of time to address it, BEFORE bringing any legal action, either individually or as a class member, against AKALI.

N. Contacting Us:

If you need assistance with the Site or with any service or information provided through it, or if you need to communicate with AKALI, please e-mail us at: info@abbitumikasa.com.